

DISCOVER

your path to success

Discover What You Love

Career Technical Education programs give students the opportunity to explore high-demand, high-wage career fields in high school. Students receive hands-on experience to gain skills that prepare them for careers right out of high school or to enter a two-year or four-year college.

Learn more at:

