

15th Anniversary Season

Columbus All City Orchestra

Andrés Lopera, conductor

Photos: Randall L. Schieber

columbus
symphony

COLUMBUS
CITY SCHOOLS

Columbus City School students currently enrolled in their school orchestra or band are invited to participate in the Columbus All City Orchestra, a district-wide music enrichment program administered by the Columbus Symphony.

“You will leave
a better musician”

—A former All City Orchestra musician

Concert

Sunday, March 6, 2022, 3 pm
Lincoln Theatre, 769 E. Long St., Columbus, OH 43203
Open to the public. No admission charge.

Students who play the following instruments may participate:

Strings: violin, viola, cello, bass

Woodwinds: flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon

Brass: trumpet, trombone, horn, tuba

Percussion: various instruments including drums, timpani and mallet instruments

Andrés Lopera conductor

Andrés Lopera serves as Assistant Conductor of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra and Music Director of the Columbus Symphony Youth Orchestras program. He conducts the nationally acclaimed CSO Youth Orchestra for students in grades 9–12.

FUN • HARD • CHALLENGING • INTERESTING
How do former All City Orchestra musicians describe their experience?
A M A Z I N G • H E L P F U L • E X C I T I N G

Rehearsals

Ft. Hayes High School
Monday evenings, 7-9pm:
Jan. 3, 10, 17, 24, 31
Feb. 7, 14, 21, 28

Lincoln Theatre
Saturday, March 5, 10-2pm

“Practice,
practice,
practice.”

—A former All City
Orchestra musician

Other Staff, Coaches

The education staff of the Columbus Symphony, led by Meghan McDevitt, will coordinate this program. Professional musicians will serve as coaches for small group rehearsals.

Teachers from Columbus City Schools will receive Professional Development Credits for active participation in this program.

Funding for the Columbus All City Orchestra has been provided by Safelite AutoGlass, The Woodhull Fund of the Columbus Foundation, and the Martha Holden Jennings Foundation.

Special thanks to Betty Hill, Unified Arts Supervisor for Columbus City Schools, Mark Donovan Unified Arts Coordinator, and Stephanie Rzewnicki, instrumental specialists at Ft. Hayes High School.

Auditions

Monday, Dec. 13, 2021 (Audition times below)

Ft. Hayes High School Band Room

Audition times have been staggered to help alleviate long waits.

- Students must be enrolled, in good standing, at a Columbus City School high school.
- Judged by professional musicians and educators who are not teachers within the CCS district.

Southeast High Schools 6 pm	Fort Hayes South Marion Franklin Eastmoor Academy	Walnut Ridge Independence East
Northeast High Schools 6:30 pm	Northland CAHS Linden-McKinley	Mifflin Brookhaven Beechcroft
West High Schools 7 pm	Centennial Whetstone West	Briggs Columbus North International

Register online at <https://bit.ly/AllCityOrchestra>

Audition Requirements:

- Solo piece
- Sight-reading
- Scales:
Strings: 2 octave major scales: D, G, B \flat
Woodwind and brass: 2 octave major scales: B \flat , F, G
Percussion: demonstrate proficiency on snare drum, timpani and/or xylophone including rudiments on snare drum; 3 octave scale on xylophone: G, F

Cost

No audition fee or tuition fee. Students must make their own transportation arrangements. Student participants will receive a certificate of participation. Special funding has been secured for this Columbus Symphony project.

For more information

Contact Meghan McDevitt, Director of Education for the Columbus Symphony, 614.221.4916 or mmcdevitt@columbussymphony.com

The Columbus Symphony appreciates and acknowledges support from:

