Upon acceptance of an enrollment offer into the Air Force Junior ROTC Program at Fort Hayes Art and Academic High School from the Division of School Choice, any and all other lottery applications will be withdrawn. If an offer is not accepted, the student will be returned to his/her current school placement. An acceptance of an offer from the Division of School Choice will automatically enroll your student as a full-time student at Fort Hayes Art and Academic High School. There are a limited number of seats available in this program. Not all applicants will be offered a seat.

I have read the rules and guidelines as outlined in the Cadet Guide for the Air Force Junior ROTC Program and hereby fully support

's enrollment in the Air Force Junior ROTC program. I understand that there is no commitment for military service because of Air Force Junior ROTC participation. I understand my son/daughter will maintain Air Force JROTC's high standards in the Air Force JROTC Cadet Guide. I understand that if my student drops out of the Air Force Junior ROTC Program or is removed from the Air Force Junior ROTC Program, he/she will immediately be required to return to their school of address, pending available space.

A cadet may be removed from the Air Force Junior ROTC training by the Senior Aerospace Science Instructor and principal in accordance with AFJROTC 36-2001, paragraph 2.4.1.1.

- A) Failure to maintain acceptable course compliance with Air Force grooming and appearance standards while in uniform: haircut, shave each day, proper wear of the uniform
- B) Inaptitude, indifference to training
- C) Disciplinary reasons

D) Any other reason deemed appropriate by the Senior Aerospace Science Instructor (SASI) and Principal.
