Dominion	The dress code is a primary means of helping students and families understand that there are requirements related to dress in the business world for success in securing and maintaining employment. On August 16, 2005 the Columbus Board of Education approved two policies that, when implemented, will help to ensure a positive climate for learning in all our schools. The purpose of the Dominion dress code is to provide guidance to students and parents regarding appropriate attire for school and at any school functions. The first district wide policy expects all students to adhere to a code of decent dress for school. Students are not to wear clothing that could compromise their personal safety or the safety of others. Specific provisions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•Undergarments must be concealed at all times.</li> <li>•Clothing should be “business world” appropriate: (No bare midriffs or see-through clothing, private areas appropriately kept private, no night or sleeping clothes; and no underwear as outerwear;</li> <li>•RIP (rest in peace) shirts may be an emotional trigger for another student, so shouldn’t be worn to school.</li> <li>•Head covering worn in the building should serve a religious purpose. Sunglasses may not be worn inside.</li> <li>•Pants must be worn at the waist. No excessively saggy pants or excessively short shorts. Long pants must be of proper waist size and must not hang below the waist, with pants not touching or dragging on the ground;</li> <li>•Belts must fit properly and not be more than three inches longer than the student’s measured waist size;</li> <li>•Clothing and jewelry shall be free of writing, pictures, or any other insignia which are crude, vulgar, profane, sexually suggestive, or which advocate negative racial, ethnic, gender or religious prejudice, or use or glorification of drugs, tobacco, alcohol, or violence. Dress should not be disruptive.</li> <li>• Purses, fanny packs and book bags will be kept locked in student lockers.</li> </ul>

	· Appropriate footwear include shoes that cover the heel. House slippers and “flip flop”, pool shoes or athletic sandals aren’t appropriate for school. The principal has discretion over the dress code.

Ridgeview	The school and CCS dress codes are intended to prevent disruption to the educational process. This policy is also intended to promote a positive school and classroom atmosphere, enhance decorum, eliminate disturbances and minimize distractions to students and staff. All clothing and accessories shall be within the bounds of decency and good taste and appropriate for school. Clothing shall be sufficient to conceal undergarments at all times. The principal shall have the authority to further define dress code requirements for their individual school. All students shall abide by the following dress code:

- All clothes must be sized appropriately and may not be tight, form fitting or oversized. No sleepwear or see through clothing is permitted. All clothing and accessories shall be free of writing, pictures or any other insignia which are crude, vulgar, profane, sexually suggestive or which advocate negative racial, ethnic, gender or religious prejudice, or use or glorification of drugs, sex, tobacco, alcohol or violence.
- Dresses, shorts and skirts shall be within the bounds of decency and good taste and not shorter than mid-thigh, defined as 4" above the knee, and must have no writing across the seat area.
- Pants and shorts are to be free of tears or holes and no bigger than 1" larger than the correctly measured student waist size and must be worn at the student's natural waistline. Pants cannot be gathered or drawn together at the waist or ankle. Pant length should not touch or drag on the ground. Shorts must be hemmed and straight legged. Athletic shorts are not permitted unless during physical education class or activity. Sagging will not be permitted. A belt, strap or zip tie should be worn the entire school day if needed for pants/shorts to remain at the waist.
- Tops must be worn at all times and must be sized appropriately. Undershirts may not be worn as outerwear, may not be low cut; see through, off the shoulder or otherwise revealing. Tube tops, spaghetti strap tops, tank tops, halter tops and/or any strapless top or dress are not permitted. No bare midriffs permitted. As a test for appropriate length, student bodies shall not be exposed when arms are raised above their heads.
- Shoes must be worn at all times and should protect the feet from injury. Flip-flops, slippers/bedroom shoes and beach shoes are not permitted. Rubber soles are recommended.
- Hats, slumber bonnets, "do-rags", caps and other types of head covering (other than for religious purposes) and Outerwear shall not be worn inside the building. Hoodies may not be worn over the head inside the building. Hair rollers may not be worn inside the building.
- Accessories and hair color are to be decent and appropriate for school. Accessories may not be oversized, noisy, gaudy or otherwise distracting. Chains and spikes are not permitted. Backpacks/backpack purses, knapsacks, fanny packs, oversized purses, sunglasses, gloves, scarves, headphones/earbuds, earmuffs, etc. may not be worn inside the school. Belts are to be no longer than 3" larger than the student's correctly measured waistline. Any accessory that may be considered a distraction or danger will be restricted.
- Gang Symbols and Gang-Related Apparel shall be defined as apparel that, if worn or displayed, could be determined or affiliate the student as a part of a gang and/or threaten the health and safety of the student or school environment. The administration may prohibit the presence of any apparel, jewelry, accessory or manner of grooming which, by virtue of its color, arrangement, trademark, or any other attribute denotes membership in such a group. (i.e., wearing or possession of chains, rags, bandannas, stocking caps, long belts, baggy/oversized pants, cutoff or saggy pants, pants worn very low below the waist, fronts, etc.) Any student wearing or carrying overt gang paraphernalia or making gestures that symbolize gang membership shall be referred to the building principal or assistant principal.

**In cases of dress code violations and questionable dress (not explicitly covered in these guidelines) the student will be counseled by a teacher, counselor, or administrator and appropriate corrective and/or disciplinary action taken, including, when necessary, a home contact seeking parental cooperation and assistance. Students will also be requested to change into appropriate clothing or be issued alternative clothing (i.e. a school t-shirt), if necessary. Repeat infractions will result in appropriate discipline. Students are responsible for adhering to all dress code policies contained within the CCS Guide to Student Success and those outlined in the Ridgeview Middle School Student Handbook.
