PREPARING FOR LIFE

Transition Planning

Do you want....

- Extra support for students and families?
- Personalized planning?
- Better student success after graduation?

Preparing for Transition

- PINS Assessment and Goals Setting: Student's preferences, interests, needs, and strengths help determine goals and activities focused on their future.
- Who should be involved? Students, parents/guardians, teachers, transition coordinators, community agency, etc.
- Individualized Timeline for Transition Planning: Be flexible, stay in communication with the Transition Coordinator, and ask questions.

What is a Transition Coordinator?

Transition Coordinators work closely with students and families to collaboratively plan, set goals, and serve as a liaison between school and community. Transition Coordinators can offer extra support for youth and families to promote growth and development into adulthood.

What are Transition Services?

- Helps prepare students to move from school to the world of adulthood.
- Part of the IEP team through school: includes areas such as postsecondary education or vocational training, employment, independent living, and community participation.
- Transition goals and activities focus on improving the academic and functional achievement of the student with a disability.

Possible Transition Topics

- High School Planning & Graduation
