

5 Things

You Should Know About

1

No Changes to Textbooks

House Bill 49 had "no provisions" related to textbooks. This means current law stands – high schools remain responsible for textbooks.

2

Student Eligibility Changes

Beginning with Academic Year 2018-2019, all students must complete an assessment exam. The students must test at college level to be eligible for CCP. If a student does not test at college level, but is within one Standard Error of Measurement and 1.) has a 3.0 GPA or 2.) receives a recommendation, the student is eligible.

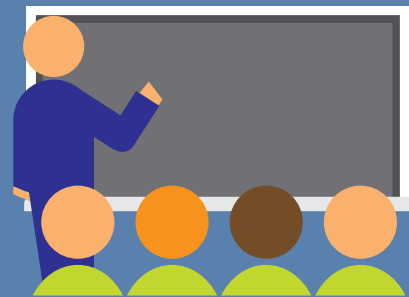

3

Rule for Underperforming Students

HB 49 allows the Chancellor and Superintendent to adopt rules specifying conditions under which an underperforming participant may continue to participate in CCP.

4

Course Eligibility Rule

Allows the Chancellor and the Superintendent to adopt rules specifying which courses are eligible for CCP funding.

5

Appeals Changes

Changes the appeals process from the State Board of Education to the Ohio Department of Education for notifications and grade disputes.