

Partnerships for Authentic Learning & Leadership

EH&M 1.0 and 2.0 are two unique (free) courses designed to help teachers vividly see, feel, and reflect upon the impact of authentic learning strategies in new and different ways.

Toward that end, each course provides a six-session online (Zoom) “film festival” with accompanying discussions that will be lively, collaborative, thought-provoking, and uplifting. (We can all use that, right?) Both courses begin January 8th, and take place on Zoom from 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm each time they meet.

EH&M 1.0 is not a prerequisite for 2.0. These are simply two different course offerings. You may register for either or both, depending on your interests and schedule. However, if you have taken EH&M before, we certainly encourage you to register for 2.0. If you also repeat 1.0, we hope you will watch the suggested alternate films to gain additional perspectives. Ashland graduate credit or contact hours are available. Participants are responsible for payment of Ashland credit, and contact hour credits are free. Ashland fees are $185 per graduate credit hour.

TO REGISTER FOR ENGAGING HEARTS AND MINDS 1.0 and/or 2.0, please complete and submit the registration form(s) below no later than January 5, 2026. All participants who register will receive a confirmation letter with further details. For more detailed workshop information, including schedules and film descriptions, click here. Questions? Contact Kathy Meyer at kathy@partnershipsforall.org.

Add a button link here: Register for Engaging Hearts and Minds 1.0

Add a button link here: Register for Engaging Hearts and Minds 2.0