ESL Program Overview
ESL PROGRAM OVERVIEW AND PHILOSOPHY

English as a Second Language (ESL) is a multi-faceted program offering ESL classes and content-area assistance to all Limited-English Proficient (LEP) students enrolled in the Columbus City Schools.

The mission of the ESL program is to facilitate student learning within five skill areas: reading, writing, speaking, listening and cultural enrichment. In addition, ESL provides educational opportunities for LEP students to meet grade promotion requirements and graduation standards while becoming members of American society.

The ESL Program provides a complete assessment to determine students’ language skills. A student profile, including a language assessment, an interview to determine previous schooling and background, and verification of immunization and birth records, facilitates the enrollment process and ensures appropriate grade placement. Bilingual personnel assist the program in working with parents and students throughout the school year.

Elementary students receive ESL assistance each day through one or more of the following: small group pull-out instruction from an ESL teacher, inclusion support from an ESL teacher or bilingual assistant, or modifications from the classroom teacher. Students who are below grade-level in reading or math receive intervention through the Leveled Literacy Intervention, and Spatial Temporal (ST) Math.

Pre-functional middle and high school students with limited or no prior schooling or educational experience may qualify for special assistance at the Columbus Global Academy. At the Columbus Global Academy, students receive all classroom instruction from teachers certified in content areas and TESOL. The following schools have sheltered sites, where the LEP students can take English, Math, Science, and Social Studies with teachers certified in content and TESOL: Columbus North International HS, Mifflin MS, Beechcroft HS, Independence HS, Mifflin HS, Northland HS, Whetstone HS and Independence HS. There are also other middle and high schools that have one ESL English Language Arts teacher. ESL students who are below grade-level in reading or math receive intervention through a reading program, such as the Leveled Literacy Intervention, and through Spatial Temporal (ST) Math.

High school students also have the option of attending Career Center Programs half-days.

The English as a Second Language (ESL) Program acknowledges that the ability to speak and understand English by itself is insufficient for effective progression in school. Proficiency in reading and writing are crucial in developing academic achievement and comprehension of content in all subjects.

The ESL Program Provides These Services:

- The development and integration of listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills

- An environment that fosters pride in native culture, establishes positive self-esteem, and facilitates acculturation into American society
• Bilingual personnel who act as a liaison between school, home, and community
• Professional development for staff working with students from diverse language and cultural backgrounds
• There are over 40 buildings that have ESL units.
• Information on the different ESL program offerings can be found in section 2

Section 2
Screening, Assessment, & Placement
Who Is Assessed?

Students who answer YES to ANY question below must be assessed in order to be certain all CCS students are offered ESL services as required by the Office of Civil Rights:

- What language did your son or daughter speak when he or she first learned to talk?
- What language does your son or daughter use most frequently at home?
- What language do you use most frequently to your son or daughter?
- What language do the adults at home most often speak?
- How long has your son or daughter attended school in the United States?

How Are Students Assessed?

Beginning SY 18-19, all school districts are required by the Ohio Department of Education to assess students using the OELPS21 assessment. This assessment is an online screener similar to the Ohio English Language Proficiency Assessment (OELPA). All students must be assessed at their school after enrollment. Students are assessed completely in English using the test appropriate for their age and grade level. All areas of language proficiency (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) are measured. Students are assigned an ESL Level: Emerging, Progressing, Progressing-Trial Mainstream, or Proficient. Students who score Proficient on the OELPS21 Screener are not identified as needing ESL services.

What are the OELPA/OELPS21 Results and What Do They Mean?

The Ohio Department of Education has released the following information regarding the OELPA and OELPS21:

Performance Levels

A student will receive a numeric performance level for each of the four domain tests taken. Students who do not take four domain tests will receive the appropriate results with an explanation for the tests not taken such as N if the test was not attempted. The performance levels for each of the four domain tests have a range of 1-5:

- Level 1 – Beginning
- Level 2 – Early Intermediate
- Level 3 – Intermediate
- Level 4 – Early Advanced
- Level 5 – Advanced
The performance levels on each of the four domains are used to determine an overall performance level. There are three overall performance levels established by ELPA21: Proficient, Progressing, and Emerging. Each EL student must take the OELPA annually until earning a Proficient score and being exited from the program. The performance level cut points, agreed to by the ELPA21 member states, are as follows:

- Proficient means a student scored any combination of level 4s and 5s on the four tests.
- Progressing means a student scored a combination of levels that did not allow the student to be considered Proficient or Emerging.
- Emerging means a student scored any combination of level 1s and 2s on the four tests.

How Are Students Placed in ESL Programs?

In order to determine the best school and program placement, students take a computer-based placement tool. This tool quickly determines the type of support a student needs. It does not determine an English language proficiency level. (Elementary students whose catchment school has the highest level of ESL programing do not take the placement tool.)

Once the Placement Tool provides a recommendation for school and program placement, Central Enrollment staff confers parents using additional data to determine the best school placement.

Additional Data used to determine school and program placement:

- An interview in the native language (when possible) to determine previous schooling and background
- Verification of immunization and birth records
- Records from previous schools including: transcripts and grade level information

Where Does Placement Take Place?

The Central Enrollment Center on the Fort Hayes campus (430 Cleveland Ave.) is the location for all enrollment and placement activities. Parents should fill-out the online “Speedy Pass” on the Columbus City Schools Website (ccsoh.us) to begin the enrollment process and schedule an appointment with an Enrollment Specialist.

What Documents Are Needed for Enrollment & Placement?

Prior to enrollment, students and parents must present the following documents for students born or living outside of the United States for more than 3 months:

- Proof of a negative test for TB (administered within the past 12 months). This can be a skin test or a chest x-ray. No students may be assessed or enrolled without proof of a negative test for TB (per Franklin County Health Department—see Form A). This test is administered free of charge at the Columbus Health Department, located at 240 Parsons Ave. (Call 614-645-7310 for recorded message with hours of operation and directions to the clinic).
- Proof of residency (we require the same proof as any school: utility bill, lease, builder’s agreement, etc.)
- Proof of date of birth (1-94 card, passport, birth certificate, residence or “green” card)
- Immunization records (immunizations can also be obtained at no cost at the Columbus Health Department). Students who enroll without proof of immunizations will be excluded after 14 days if proof is not forthcoming.

- Social Security number (if available, although one is not required for enrollment)

- Prior school records (if available; though often not available, these aid us in placing children in the proper grade and are mandatory for any student requesting placement in grades 10, 11, or 12)
The following are the possible recommendations from the ESL placement tool:

Students spend the major portion of the school day in a regular class mixed with native English speaking students, while the ESL staff push-in to the classrooms to assist them. For a small portion of the day they may be pulled-out for intensive instruction in English and/or Reading/Math intervention.

A program for students who have had little or no formal schooling and have little or no literacy in English or in their native language.
COLUMBUS GLOBAL ACADEMY

Any middle or high school student who meets the following criteria will be offered an opportunity to enroll at the Columbus Global Academy:

- First or second year in Columbus City Schools
- Little or no literacy skills
- Limited schooling or interrupted schooling
- Pre-functional or Beginner English levels based upon ESL assessment

Students who have been at CGA for two years, and students who progress quickly, should transition to another Columbus City school, including those with sheltered sites if more support is needed.

Courses at the Columbus Global Academy include:

Language lab classes, all required middle and high school courses, and electives such as Spanish, music and art. All high school courses count as credit toward graduation.

Bilingual instructional assistants, representing the cultural diversity of the student population, work with teachers and students and assist in communicating with families.

The Purposes of the Columbus Global Academy

- To provide English language development
- To provide an introduction to the U.S. school system
- To provide transitional support that would prepare students to attend regular schools
- To give students an introduction to American culture
- To instruct all content area classes through sheltered instruction

- To provide sheltered instruction courses (math, science, social studies/history, etc) taught by ESL and content-area certified teachers. Sheltered courses focus on both content development and language development of the student.

OGT, College & Career Readiness Program

The OGT, College & Career Readiness Program consists of in-house tutoring sessions and on-line practice for the OGT, with the primary focus being on literacy. It has been designed for students who have passed all of the necessary coursework for graduation but have not passed all 5 parts of the OGT. Students also participate in career exploration (including career interest tests and speakers from various careers), and basic job skills training. This program is held during the school day at the ESL Service Center, behind Columbus Global Academy. For more information, contact the ESL Department at (614) 365-8802.

How Is Student Progress In ESL Monitored?

The ESL Program monitors students through the administration and analysis of the annual, state-mandated OELPA (Ohio English Language Proficiency Assessment, monitors student progress in ESL. Once a student reaches the designation Proficient or Progressing-Trial Mainstream, he/she will be monitored in mainstream classes and not be pulled for language acquisition instruction.

NOTE: If a student reaches Trial Mainstream but the teachers determine that he/she would benefit from continued participation in the ESL Program, he will be permitted to receive ESL assistance, through class modifications, push-in or pull-out if necessary.

Implications of ESSA Legislation on ESL Programs and Student Performance

- English learners participate in statewide entrance and exit procedures to ensure necessary resources are provided

- Districts must report the percentage of students who do not obtain English proficiency within 5 years

- English learners’ state exam scores do not count for a district their first year in US schools, the second year their growth is measured for Reading and Math, and the 3rd year, their scores count the same as for the native English speakers.

- English learners’ scores will count in the EL (LEP) subgroup for 4 years after obtaining English proficiency

- English learners with a disability will now be disaggregated from the EL subgroup to better provide a clearer picture of progress

- ALL teachers must differentiate, make appropriate modifications and provide necessary accommodations for their students, including English learners
U.S. Department of Education and Office of Civil Rights (OCR) Mandates for Servicing ESL Students

- Districts must identify all LEP students who need assistance
- Districts must ensure that all students who need language assistance are provided the opportunity for participation
- Districts must identify a program which, in the view of experts, has a reasonable chance for success
- Districts must ensure that necessary staff, curricular materials and facilities exist and are used properly
- Districts must assess the success of the program and make modifications where necessary
- Districts must guarantee that students are not being misidentified and enrolled into classes for disabled students based on language
- Districts must develop appropriate evaluation standards, including program exit criteria, for measuring the progress of students
- Districts must ensure that parents who are not proficient in English are provided with appropriate and sufficient information regarding the education of their children

Annual Spring Reassessment for ESL Students
In accordance with federal guidelines established by the Every Student Succeeds Act legislation, the Ohio Department of Education along with a consortium of 10 other U.S. states (ELPA21) began implementation of an annual (Ohio) English Language Proficiency Assessment (OELPA) test to be given to all second-language students in grades K-12 every spring.

LEP Students and the 3rd Grade Reading Guarantee

From ODE’s Third Grade Reading Guarantee FAQ Document (Oct. 15, 2012)

“All students, including LEP and students with disabilities must take a diagnostic test and have a reading improvement and monitoring plan if the test results show the students as not on-track. All other requirements of the Third Grade Reading Guarantee apply as well, including retention. In 2013-14, the following exemptions from retention begin. The following students may be promoted even if they do not reach the required score on the Ohio Achievement Assessment:

- Limited English proficient students who have been enrolled in US schools for less than three full school years and have had less than three years of instruction in an English as a Second Language program;
- Special education students whose IEPs specifically exempt them from retention under the third grade guarantee.

These exemptions only excuse select students from being retained under the Third Grade Guarantee. The exemption does not necessarily apply to all LEP students or all students with an IEP.”
ESL Special Ed and Gifted & Talented

Special Education

If a student is having continuous difficulties in school, the school contacts the parents to attend a meeting to determine if their child needs intervention and possibly to be tested for Special Education. When a student receives an Individualized Education Plan (IEP), the ESL teacher and Special Education teacher will work together to determine appropriate language support.

Gifted & Talented

In the fall, LEP students in grades 2 and 6, also participate in the Terra Nova/InView to identify students who are accelerated learners. When a child is identified, parents are contacted. Services will be provided from Gifted & Talented.

Each winter, your child will take the Ohio English Language Proficiency Assessment (OELPA) to determine their speaking, listening, reading and writing levels in English.

As your child’s English improves, their level will increase. There are three levels of English:

- Proficient – The student can work without help in a classroom where English is used for teaching. The student may now exit the English learning program. The child will no longer be treated as an English learner. The student scored any combination of level 4s and 5s on the four tests.
- Progressing – The student needs teaching in the English language to be able to work in a classroom where the teacher uses English. The student will continue to receive English language services. The student scored a combination of levels that do not meet the Proficient or Emerging levels.
- Emerging – The student is in the beginning stages of learning English. The student will continue receiving English language services. The student scored any combination of level 1s and 2s on the four tests.
WRITING

Level 5: Student identifies the main ideas and important details of discussions and lectures. Student identifies a speaker’s purpose and understands social and classroom language.

Level 4: Student understands directions that have more than one step and understands point of view. Student understands a range of social and classroom language.

Level 3: Student understands main ideas in short conversations and understands some classroom language.

Level 2: Student understands simple spoken statements, questions and one-step directions.

SPEAKING

Level 5: Student speaks well with language and grammar that is similar to native English speakers in the same grade.

Level 4: Student’s speech is mostly clear and organized with some mistakes that seldom interfere with speech.

Level 3: Student speaks well in simple situations but mistakes in grammar and word sounds make it difficult to express difficult ideas.

Level 2: Student speaks in simple words and phrases but makes many mistakes in language, word order and grammar that cause problems.

Level 1: Student may be able to copy letters and write some words, but the wording does not give a clear message.

Section 3

New to ESL
This section is designed as a reference for those who are new and/or unfamiliar in working with ESL students.

If you are a secretary, building or district administrator or classroom teacher with little to no experience with the ESL program, there are a variety of resources available to help you meet the needs of your ESL learners, both within the Columbus City School district and in the community. Please contact our office at 365-8802 with your specific questions.

Refugees and Displaced Students May Have Faced:

- long interruptions in education
- shortage of adequate teachers
- family disruption, loss of family members
- health and food problems in refugee camps

These students may display symptoms of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), which may include:

- being extremely emotional
- confusing fantasy with reality
• high dependency
• low self-esteem
• poor concentration, and/or attention deficit
• hyperactivity, ADHD
• poor memory
• sleep problems, nightmares
• inability to make friends
• violent tendencies
• viewing violence as a way to solve problems

Points to Remember In Developing Cross-Cultural Relationships

• What seems to be logical, sensible, important and reasonable to a person in one culture may seem unusual, irrational and unimportant to an outsider.

• When discussing cultures, emphasize similarities, not differences.

• Personal observations and reports of other cultures should be regarded with a great deal of skepticism.

• One should make up one’s own mind about another culture and not rely on the reports and experiences of others.

• It requires experience as well as study to understand the subtleties of another culture.

• Stereotyping is inevitable in the absence of frequent contact or study.

• The feelings people have for their own languages are not often evident until they encounter another language.

Translations

• The ESL Call Center is open to take calls for immediate translation for Spanish, Arabic, Somali, Nepali and part time: Swahili and French at the following extensions:

Many common documents and letters have already been translated and are available on the ESL department webpage.

For translation / interpretation services, please fill out the On-line Translation Request form located on the ESL department webpage under “ESL Forms”.

For School Secretaries

If you need assistance communicating with a student or family who speaks another language, or have any questions pertaining to ESL, please contact our call center at (614) 365-8802.

A summary of what occurs at the ESL Assessment Center:

While students are being evaluated, bilingual personnel complete the enrollment process with the parents or guardians:

1. Documents are collected and photocopied
   - Proof of negative test for TB, less than one year old, (students are not tested or enrolled without this test)
   - Proof of date of birth (birth certificate, passport, residence [or “Green”] card, or I-94)
   - Immunization records (if none exists, families are provided with a list of clinics where they can be obtained)
   - Proof of residency
   - Prior school records (if available)
   - Social Security card (if available)
   - Guardianship papers (if necessary)

2. Students are assigned to a school based on their address and need for ESL services

3. Enrollment information (including ESL testing results) is entered into Infinite Campus and appropriate ESL codes are assigned to the student

4. Copies of collected documents are scanned and then emailed to schools

5. The ESL Pupil Enrollment sheet is emailed to the appropriate school to alert the secretary that the child has been enrolled and assigned to her school.
6. Transportation request is faxed to the Transportation Office; bus information will be sent directly to the school from the Transportation Office

Other Items to Be Aware of:

- The Assessment Center does advise families that a parent or guardian must accompany the child to school on the first day.

- Please have patience with the Assessment Center during the months of August, September, and October. Assessment Center staff assesses between 30 – 35 students daily and may not be available to answer questions immediately. Staff will respond as quickly as possible to concerns.

For Classroom Teachers

Successful Parent-Teacher Conferences with Parents of English Language Learners

- Use a portfolio for assessment; it will be easier for parents and students to see progress. Parents should get feedback on their child’s progress in Speaking, Listening, Reading, Writing and content knowledge.

- In parent conferences, visual aids are a key ingredient. Even though the parent may bring an interpreter, you can communicate directly. Show the student’s portfolio containing written work, writing samples, drawings, test papers, etc. Illustrate your comments with the student’s work, and allow the parents to take it home. Invite the parents to tell you to slow down or to ask questions if they don’t understand. Use the same modes of communication that work with the ESL students in your class.

- Write out statements you think could be misinterpreted.

- Increase the parents’ regard for the child and their own culture. Mention some specific positive ways the child’s behavior or culture has impacted the others in the class.

- Tell your expectations for second language learners. Tell what kind of reading instruction the student is receiving and for which subjects he or she is leaving your room. Talk about cooperative learning, invented spelling, and whole language. These things are new to the parents and can be misinterpreted through a child’s eyes and reports. Share ideas and resources with parents that benefit students and families.

- Express the positive aspects of a student’s development and learning before bringing up any negative news. Parents may mistakenly feel that their child has shamed the family and needs severe punishment.
Tips for Working with ESL Students

Keep in mind that all of these should not be implemented at once. Try one or two new items with each lesson and continue to practice them as you move forward

- Know the students’ OELPA and Reading Levels
- Provide comprehensible input (make sure the student truly understands what you are saying)
- Use shorter sentences
- Enunciate clearly
- Talk more slowly but not necessarily louder
- Control vocabulary that is being introduced and used
- Avoid idioms (phrases that cannot be literally understood, i.e.: “It’s raining cats and dogs.”)
- Repeat material being conveyed in different but simple words
- Pause frequently to check comprehension
- Allow extra wait time for students to process what is being said into their own language
- Use many methods as possible (respecting the multiple intelligences of different learners) to get information across
- Provide lots of visual support to content material
- Provide hands-on activities to cement content
- Introduce and explicitly teach use of graphic organizers
- Use gestures, actions, eye contact and body language
- Write down what is being said as it is being said (on the overhead or board)
- Modify texts by adding visuals and eliminating unnecessary words
- Modify content by supplementing with same-content picture or lower reading level books
- Encourage students to learn from each other
- Use pairs or buddies with an English speaking peer
- Encourage talking. Language cannot be built without communication
- Focus on meaning rather than grammar
- Allow use of first language dictionaries to help in understanding important vocabulary and concepts
Instructional Strategies and Suggestions

Individual English Learner Plans

Beginning SY 2016-2017, each English Learner (LEP) will be tied to a form code based (in Infinite Campus) on the following criteria (1) LEP Flag level, (2) Grade band, (3) Proficient or Not –Proficient in Reading (MAP K-2, OST 3-12). Each of the different forms contain a description of the student’s English level, appropriate classroom modifications and accommodations that should be made, and the Limited English Proficiency standards that are to be taught to the student. These different forms can be found on the English as a Second Language webpage (left column at the bottom) under “Departments” on the CCSOH.org website. Here is an example:
Beginning Level Students and Newcomers

- When speaking in class, take care to speak clearly in natural conversational tones. The ESL student will feel more comfortable if he can see the face of the speaker, so try to face the class when speaking.

- It may be necessary to give more information in more detail for an ESL student than for a native speaker. If you use a variety of ways to communicate, including rewording what you want to say, drawing sketches, using gestures and pantomime, and writing important words on the board, chances are... you will be understood. Try to overcome any personal anxiety you might feel about not being understood.

- Make a list of activities, which you expect the ESL student to complete in a specified period of time. Restrict the content, but make up a variety of activities (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) concerning the same content material. You might want to include reading exercises; watching filmstrips or TV shows; drawing graphs, charts, or pictures; vocabulary exercises; and interpreting visual materials. Both the length of time and the number of activities should be limited at the beginning but can be increased as the student’s fluency and academic skills develop.

- Find out from a simple oral quiz (or from the ESL staff) the kinds of question forms the ESL student understands, (Questions are taught in the ESL curriculum). Make up simple questions for use in oral and written exercises related to the content. Make sure that the student has an opportunity to learn any specific vocabulary related to the exercise. Limit the vocabulary.

Intermediate and Advanced Students

- Match language skills with valid assignments. When possible, give the student a task, which will accelerate his/her language learning and acculturation, rather than simply maintain the present levels. Take care, though, not to frustrate the student with tasks too difficult for his/her level of fluency.

- Locate and use reading material on the same or a related subject on a lower reading level with your ESL student.

- Assign students short simple passages to study.

- Test the student orally by having him/her explain the main ideas in his/her own words or try the doze method (fill in the blanks) in a written exercise.

- On occasion, you might want the student to memorize some material. Ask the ESL teacher how to devise drills and test items from a passage the student has memorized.

- Prepare lessons in the use of research methods: how to use the textbook (paper and/or online), including utilizing headings, boldface print, the glossary, the index, etc. Consider these as language and skill assignments for the ESL student until he/she is fluent enough to be accountable for the content.

- Plan lessons with your class where the message of the lesson is transmitted nonverbally, (charts, pictures, paintings, films with non-verbal soundtracks, music, dance, cooking, crafts, might be used). You might like to coordinate this effort with teachers from other disciplines.

- Understand that it will take at least two years for an English Language Learner to start competing academically with his/her English-speaking peers. Adjust your expectations as deviations occur due to individual differences or other reasons causing slower or more rapid language skill development and academic growth.
Modifying Curriculum

All classroom teachers are responsible for modifying content to make it more comprehensible to ESL students.

If a teacher is uncertain how best to modify for ESL students, he/she may begin by consulting with the ESL teacher in the building. If there is no ESL unit within the building, please begin by contacting 365-3108, and one of our curriculum coaches will assist you with resources and modifications.

Ways to modify curriculum:

1. Basic Skill: add from previous grade-levels
2. Content: cut out non-essentials; add from previous grade-levels

Steps:

1. Identify learning objectives.
2. Pre-test students.
3. Incorporate foundational knowledge and skill building into instructional time.
4. Eliminate instruction or assignments that are not essential.
5. Offer enrichment or acceleration options for higher-level students.

Correcting and commenting on written work

- In content areas, grade on the newcomer’s knowledge of the content, not on his/her level of expression.
- Don’t correct all the errors on ESL writing papers. Students can’t learn from overkill. Sometimes it’s preferable to focus on a few areas that need improvement, such as verb tense and punctuation.

ESL Report cards (Elementary School)

- Complete ESL report card (found under ESL Forms on our website) for students that you directly work with
- Write easy-to-understand, specific comments to the parents. The parent has no idea of what to do with comments like “could do better.”
- Be positive. Mention the accomplishments
- Describe what the student does in class
- Acknowledge effort and courage
- You do not need to fill out report cards for students who are trial mainstreamed
- ESL Report cards can be downloaded and printed from the ESL website under ESL forms
- Please be sure to include a copy of the English version, in case the parents do not read in their native language
Suggestions for Parents

Ask parents to do the following:

- read to their child in the native language;
- continue to use the native language at home for teaching life skills and concepts to their children;
- discuss events and news with them in their own language; maintain their contacts with relatives and events in their native country;
- help with the homework if possible;
- ask their child for a recap of new things learned each day;
- ask parents if they have access to children’s books in the native language;
- help them understand how to get a public library card;
- suggest that parents allow their children to join Little League, Scouts, the Y, where their child may have more exposure to English after school;
- mention one or two good TV programs and the public TV channels, and suggest they put the subtitles on in English and encourage students to read while they watch a show;
- let the parents know they can register for free ESL classes for adults with the ESL Department Office.

IMPORTANT: It is not helpful to suggest to parents that they speak English to their children at home. This could undermine the quality of conversation and teaching of values that the parents can do best in their native language. The goal should be to have the child become bilingual, not to lose his native language by giving it up at home.
Activating Prior Knowledge and Building Background Knowledge

- Some students have had limited schooling in their countries
- Some have lived in refugee camps
- Use visuals (Google Images, You Tube, Brain POP)
- Ask for student input on their experiences

You ARE a Reading Teacher

- Students must have competent reading skills in order to demonstrate content knowledge on state tests
- A significant number of students in CCS are reading below grade level (including American students)
- Model and have students practice reading strategies (in All content areas)
- Incorporate reading practice in each lesson (especially informational text)
- Make sure questions/discussions ensure students have read and show comprehension about the text
- Students must be able to compare and evaluate texts, and use excerpts from text when arguing a point and answering questions

Thematic Instruction

- Shorter than traditional “Units”
- To group and teach vocabulary in context
- Relate it to students’ lives

Making Input Comprehensible

- Begin with materials at the student’s Reading and Language level (Use OAA/OGT, Short Cycle Reading Assessments, and OTELA scores as reference)
- Fill in gaps using standards from previous grades
- Focus on the most important concepts and less on details
- Use visuals, model, use graphic organizers
- Allow students to review newer concepts several times, through several modes
- Use peer buddies

Scaffolding & Differentiated Instruction

- Break complex task into “doable” steps
- Model thought processes (think aloud)
- Offer hints or possible choices
- Have multiple methods of lesson delivery and participation
- Let students demonstrate what they’ve learned through project/activity choices

Fiction and Nonfiction Writing
Students are tested more on informational text
The reading excerpts on the test come from core subject areas, especially from History and Science
Students must prove their answers through short answer and extended response, even for Math
In order to write, students must have a good grasp on content specific academic vocabulary
Writing should be part of each lesson

Total Physical Response (TPR)

- Research shows that movement while learning helps get info into long-term memory
- Try making up gestures for students to do to help learn vocabulary
- Use kinesthetic activities with students when teaching/reviewing concepts

Vocabulary Development

- Focus on improving students’ Tier II vocabulary
- Make students responsible for 10 or less academic words a week (per core subject)
- Research shows that teachers and students need to hear, speak, read and write the new words several times in order to get them to long-term memory
- Don’t be afraid to try some vocabulary games and activities...being engaged and having fun during the activity will also aid in remembering new info
- Try having a word wall with words from the previous week/s and new words being introduced...refer to them often

Assessment

- Allow dictionary use on classroom assessments
- Give fewer questions OR more time to struggling students
- Use different types of assessments (oral, written, informal)

For more tips and strategies refer to our Classroom Supports guide.

Activities for Pre-Functionals in the Gen. Ed. Classroom

- Make sure you use visuals (pics and vid clips) and model/use body language when you are teaching
- If you are doing an activity with reading and writing involved, give the student a picture related to the activity to have them label things (word bank - vocabulary) and write sentences using those words (if possible)
- Have student draw lines from pictures to words or easy sentences
- Even the lowest students can copy vocabulary, excerpts, etc. and then read it to another student, or have it read to them.
• Have student draw a picture from a story they heard or about a topic discussed
• Ask the librarian, ESL teacher, or Special Ed teacher for lower level materials (books, handouts) on subject matter you are teaching
• A star student who works quickly can help the struggling student
• Incorporate games for the whole class to practice vocabulary
• While working on the computer, have students use Read and Write Gold so that they can have things read to them
• Use Rosetta Stone, Reading Horizons, lower levels of Plato, Starfall and more

ESL Push-In to General Ed Classrooms

*Done by the ESL teacher or Assistant
* Working towards Co-teaching

Teaching Strategies and Formats: Teachers working together can develop a variety of instructional repertoires. It should be noted here that both teachers should use a variety of strategies and play different roles in this instructional setting. Push-In possibilities:

<table>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Teach and Write/Chart</td>
<td>At times each teacher should be the instructor providing visual representations of instructional information.</td>

<tr>
<td>Activity Groups or Station Teaching</td>
<td>Students should be grouped in a variety of configurations [e.g. pairs, triads, cooperative groups] to work on an academic task. Groups should contain both ELLs and mainstream students. Both teachers should work with all student groups.</td>

Although this writing initiative is being driven by the ESL department, it is our desire that the ESL staff work in collaboration with general education teachers who instruct Limited English Proficient students to fulfill these goals.

| Goal 1: Frequent Writing | • 3+ times a week
• Quick writes, exit tickets, journals, SA/ER, letters, on-line, etc.
• Different genres of writing—with an emphasis on making an argument/persuading (supporting and defending a response)
• On a variety of topics (including cross-curricular) |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| Goal 2: Writing Strategies | • Research-based writing strategies (from Better Answers or The Power in Your Hands)
• Introduce/Use one continuously each week or two
• For a variety of topics (including cross-curricular)
• Also Use strategies to aid Common Core writing |
| Goal 3: LA Writing Portfolios | • Each student will complete all four pieces of writing required for the CCS LA Writing Portfolios with modifications when necessary
• Works will be collected and placed into the writing portfolios
• Teachers may adapt the rubric for student language and ability levels to evaluate student writing, or indicate the help that students received from ESL |
| Goal 4: Use Technology | • Research on the internet as appropriate
• Use websites and software to allow for writing practice
• Secondary Level to expose students to Essay Scorer
• Practice for PARCC Accessibility Features (grades 3-12) |

ESL MIDDLE SCHOOL COURSE SCHEDULING INFORMATION

1. Always look at the state test Reading scores (OAA/OGT/PARCC) in conjunction with the OTELA (OELPA) scores when determining if a student should be in native-English speaking classes or scheduled with the ESL teacher. If a student has scored Proficient in Reading on the state Reading test, they should be scheduled into native-English speaking classes.

2. Designate required courses as ESL by writing “L” after the course number.

3. The recommended student/teacher ratio is 20:1 for ESL classes.

4. Two different courses/grade levels may be scheduled during the same time. This model facilitates grouping the students based on language levels.

5. Trial Mainstream (Level 4) students are to be scheduled into regular classes (with native-English speakers) per the Ohio Department of Education.
6. Intermediate Level students (Level 3) can be scheduled with the ESL teachers, but may show more success in classes with native-English speakers. Ideally, this should be determined on a case by case basis, by the ESL teachers.

7. When scheduling students into classes, keep in mind that clustering LEP students together in native-English speaker classes will help facilitate Push-in support by the Bilingual Assistants.

8. Lower level ESL students will benefit from having Core Enrichment with the ESL teacher.

9. Foreign Language is not recommended for Pre-functional Newcomer students in their first year of school in the US.

10. An extra period of Core Enrichment could be scheduled for Students with no English skills, in place of an Encore period.

11. The ESL Curriculum Coaches will happily provide assistance on scheduling the LEP students at your request.

ESL HIGH SCHOOL COURSE SCHEDULING INFORMATION

1. Based on your LEP student needs, the Master Schedule can be set up as semester block or year long, or a combination. Please work with the ESL Staff and school counselors in your building to help determine appropriate course placement based on student needs and English levels to help set up the Master Schedule and to schedule individual students.

2. ESL schedules (just like Special Ed) should be completed first to ensure students receive needed coursework. Caution: Students transitioning from the Columbus Global Academy program may be a year or more behind cohort. Also, with the increase of ESL students in your building, additional allocations for electives and general education courses may be needed.

3. Always look at the state test Reading scores (OAA/OGT/AIR) in conjunction with the OELPA (was OTELA) scores when determining if a student should be in native-English speaking classes or scheduled with the ESL teacher. If a student has scored Proficient in Reading on the state Reading test, they should initially be scheduled into native-English speaking classes.

4. Designate required courses as ESL by writing “L” after the course number. “LB” are ESL Blocked courses.

5. The recommended student/teacher ratio is 20:1 for ESL classes.

6. Two different courses/grade levels may be scheduled during the same time. This model facilitates grouping the students based on language levels. For example, Social Studies Lab may be scheduled during World History to accommodate for a few Pre-functional students whose English level is too low for them to show success with the core curriculum (even with modifications).

7. ESL Elective courses include (X & Y…0.5 credits each): English Lab, Math Lab, Science Lab, Soc. St Lab, and Elective ESL 9,10,11,12. ESL Students should also take the other required Electives.

8. Academic Assist can be scheduled as needed, for an unlimited number of times

9. Pre-functional Newcomer students can be scheduled for a semester up to a year of Lab classes.

10. Lab classes should be offered both first and second semesters, since new students enroll all year long.

11. Beginner Level students and higher may bypass Lab courses if they are ready for core coursework.

12. Trial Mainstream students are to be scheduled into regular classes (with native-English speakers) per the Ohio Department of Education.

13. Intermediate Level students should be scheduled at least into ESL English and others. Ideally, this should be determined on a case by case basis, by the ESL teachers and student.

14. When scheduling students into native-English classes, keep in mind that clustering LEP students together will help facilitate Push-in support by the Bilingual Assistants.

15. Foreign Language is not recommended for Pre-functional Newcomer students in their first year of high school. Some students may wish to get Credit Flex credits for their native language.

16. Please see the attached Sample Schedule for Sheltered Site Teachers, and the Example Student Schedules.

17. The ESL Curriculum Coaches will happily provide assistance on scheduling the LEP students at your request.
