

Paper is Due April 24

Students should watch one (1) streamed production from the attached list and write a 1-2 page review and reflection. Students are encouraged to select a performance/movie that they have not seen before.

The review and reflection should include the following information:

- Site the performance and where you watched it (Netflix, Disney +, Hulu, YouTube, etc.)
- Who were the “key players”? If you watched a concert who performed, who directed, which orchestra/choirs were involved. If you watched a musical/opera who played the lead roles?
- What happened? What type of music was performed? Was it in English (if not do you know what language it was in?) What was the plot of the production?
- What voice parts did you hear? What were the primary instruments?
- What was your favorite part of the performance? Give examples.
- What was your least favorite? Give examples.
- First impressions on the music.
- Impressions after the performance concluded.
- If watching a musical, how did the music move the story forward?
- What is one thing that you would share with your friends or family about the performance?
- What surprised you about the performance.

Your paper should consist of complete paragraphs, sentences, and ideas. No bulleted lists.

A list of accepted performances are on the next page, you may also watch anything on Met Opera on Demand (<https://www.metopera.org/season/on-demand/>) or on Broadway HD (<https://www.broadwayhd.com/>)

If you find a musical on Netflix, Hulu, YouTube, or Amazon Prime that is not on the list you may use it if it meets the following criteria.

- It must be a live performance, not animated.
- Music must help move the narrative.
- You must site the performance.
