

Champion Middle School
22/23 School Year
New Dress Code Policy

Students are NOT required to wear uniforms. However, all students are required to dress in such a way that it is not distracting to the educational process. The school reserves the right to prohibit any clothing or apparel that may potentially disrupt or cause a safety concern in the school environment.

Examples of prohibited items include but are not limited to:

- Tank tops, Halter Tops, Low-Cut Tops and Spaghetti Straps
- Bare midriffs
- Neck lines that display any cleavage
- See-through tops (undergarments must not be seen - Note: tights, leggings, hosiery and underwear qualify as undergarments)
- Bra straps must not show or be visible outside of clothing
- Shorts, skirts, or skorts must not be too short. Mid thigh is acceptable
- Torn jeans/clothes, holes must be sewn or patched
- Frayed jeans must not show skin or undergarments
- Large purses or bags
- Pajama bottoms or look-a-likes, including Spirit Wear
- Sagging pants; pants are to be worn at the waist
- Spiked items and chains, loose or sewn on
- Gloves, full or fingerless
- Hats, bandanas or hoodies (hoods worn on head)
- Apparel that displays ads or promotions of a sexual nature, alcoholic beverages, tobacco or any other drug, or which advocates violence of the use of force against any institution, individual, racial, ethnic or cultural group.

*Specific procedures regarding dress code will be reviewed with students during class meetings and assemblies at the beginning of the school year, as well as reviewed throughout the school year.
