Library Newsletter January 2022

Happy New Year and welcome back! With some uncertainty as we start the new year, don't forget to take advantage of everything the library has to offer! If you're in need of a creative/last minute lesson plan, send me an email! I have a lot of different ideas that we could do on short notice!

Circulation Statistics for December

In December, the students kept on reading! I love seeing how many of our students are engaged with some great books!

CCPSG: 246

WLMS: 224

Library Activities

Come explore the different activities we have available in the library, including a button making machine, a giant sticker puzzle, stress relief coloring pages, and more! Sign up to bring a class down or just stop on by!

Library Details

New Books!

Tis the season for new books! New books continue to arrive at CCPSG, and WLMS will be getting their first set of new books soon! Due to supply chain issues, book orders are taking much longer to fill and many books are out of stock. As always, I continue to strive to offer the best collection development for our students!

Speeding Dating with Books

This month students have the opportunity to spend some time "speed dating" with books! Students will get to know at least five books and then at the end of the period, they'll find their "perfect match", for the next two weeks anyways! This is a great way to introduce students to books they wouldn't normally consider! Teachers, sign up to bring your classes down!

Upcoming Events:

January 5-All December bingo cards due to the library!
January 10/11-January reading challenge starts
Last week of January-January grab and go bags available

ALA Book Awards

During the last month of January, the American Library Association will announce their book awards for the previous year. Stay tuned to learn about some new awesome books!

In particular, YALSA is the young adult branch of ALA, so their awards are aimed at our students!
