SPECIALTY LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES/CURRICULUM

McGraw Hill StudySync, McGraw Hill Reveal Math, science, social studies, Spanish (Japanese, French or Italian - at Fort Hayes in alternate years), health, visual art, orchestra, band, physical education, dance, theatre, vocal music, technology, media arts, and gifted and talented. Arts I.M.P.A.C.T Middle School has a committed teaching staff that provides creative and arts-oriented students the opportunity to achieve their full artistic and intellectual potential. Instruction infuses the arts into academic core subjects, while arts studies are similarly enriched with information from academic subjects. The arts component of the school provides students with an alternative approach to learning. The students at AIMS have the ability to participate in many arts experiences and performance opportunities throughout the community. In addition, many outstanding artists in the community visit, perform, and interact with our students. Diversity is celebrated at AIMS as students of varied academic, social and cultural backgrounds unite to create a safe, nurturing, respectful and effective global learning community.

Prospective students and parents are encouraged to visit Arts IMPACT Middle School. READING PROGRAM: Novel Study (vocabulary development, extended writing short and long responses, comparative texts) News ELA and Achieve 3000.
