Students OF THE MONTH

Arek Garang

She continually asks me questions so she can grow her awareness of post high school options and how best to excel and attain more scholarships/options. She is possibly the most motivated student I've encountered in years. She's a fierce advocate for herself! ~ Mr. Tait

Dyamond Thomas

Dyamond has very good attendance and puts forth great effort. I always ask my students to turn their cameras on and, even though this is a challenge for Dyamond, she comes through. She works hard and is trying to make personal connections despite this challenging social time, which I think should be commended.

~ Andrew Smith

Outstanding student who works very hard at earning her grade. Also during zoom meetings is very positive and support of her peers. ~ Charity Miller

Aly Diallo

He attends every day and is always engaged. He is a pleasure to have in class and an all around student. ~ Ms. Bro

Elizabeth Portalatin

This year Elizabeth has really stepped up to the plate. This is only her second year in JROTC and you would not know that seeing the depth of knowledge she has. She has really taken on the roll of mentoring new drill team members. She has become quite the teacher. ~ MSG Zumock

Kavontay Robinson

Student is always on zoom ready to work . Student loves reading and always engaged . ~ Ms. Bauer

Dustin Jennings

I just wish Dustin had been in JROTC before his JR year at South. In a short time he has matured much. He has been an excellent cadet. Willing to do what is needed when needed. He has literally stepped into any roll we needed him. He has been an excellent roll model of discipline and dedication to the younger Cadets. ~ LTC Paul Allmon

Logan Martin

Shout out to Logan for getting a PERFECT score on the "Microsoft Office Specialists Credential Exam". Way to go Logan!!!!!! ~ Mrs. Mollmann
