

Cell Phone Policy

For safety, we know that our students may need cell phones; but please remind them they should turn off their ringers before coming to school and they should remain put away until after they leave. Teachers may allow students to use their phones for class purposes, but this is at the teacher's discretion. Under no circumstances should students take or send photos or videos of other students and staff members.