About US:

We're located on the beautiful campus of Fort Hayes, an historic U.S. Army Base. Consisting of Computer, Printing, Photography and Bindery Labs, we provide endless opportunities to learn by doing!

Things You'll Make:

You'll create brand identifying logos and marketing campaigns for events and organizations. You'll design and produce farments using screen printing and vinyl transfers. You'll design and produce large-format printing products like posters, signs, banners, and automobile wraps. You'll design and print books, posters, forms, flyers, packaging, promotional pieces and more using digital and traditional printing equipment. You'll design and publish digital products for websites, social media and internet publishing.
