Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA)

COBRA, a federal law, allows insured employees and their dependents to continue health and dental coverage under several circumstances when it would normally be lost.

Below is the basis for COBRA continuation:

1. Loss of Employment (resignation/termination) – If an employee terminates employment, the employee and/or insured dependents may continue his/her health coverage for up to 18 months.

2. Reduction of Hours – If any employee’s hours of employment are reduced so that he/she is no longer entitled to benefits, he/she and/or insured dependents may continue health coverage for up to 18 months (includes unpaid leave of absence or personal leave).

3. Death of Employee – If an employee with dependent coverage should die, covered dependents may continue their health coverage for up to 36 months.

4. Loss of Dependent Eligibility – Health coverage may be continued for a child who was covered by dependent coverage and has reached the age limitation for normal coverage, for up to 36 months.

5. Divorce – If an employee and his/her spouse are divorced, and the spouse and/or other dependents were covered as dependents on the employee’s health insurance, the divorced spouse and/or dependents may continue his/her health coverage for up to 36 months.

6. Extension for Disabled Persons – If a person is totally disabled for social security purposes at the time that one of the reasons listed in (1) or (2) above occurs, that person is entitled to up to 29 months of continued health coverage.

Premiums for the above insurance are paid by the person using COBRA coverage. If one of the above events occurs, please contact Employee Benefits so that COBRA can be offered. Employees have 60 days from the qualifying event to complete and return the COBRA application or forfeit any rights to continuation of coverage.
