

Third Grade Review

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Week 1	Choose a book. What does this story remind you of?	What is the middle letter sound for each word? sail, light, step	This school year, I am proudest of how much I learned about...	Blend the onset /sh/ with each ending. -ip, -ot, -ut	Name two words that are antonyms of happy.
Week 2	Choose a book. Who is the main or most important character in the story?	Put the prefix re- in front of each word. do, read, tape	Imagine you discovered a new animal. Write a story about it.	What are three words that end with the /ch/ sound?	What are two meanings for the word bat?
Week 3	Choose a book. How does the main character look, act and feel?	Change the middle sound of each word to /i/. lap, pot, bet, pug	Write a letter to a family member telling why they are important to you.	Tap out the following words. short, chirp, farm	Name two words that are synonyms of fast.
Week 4	Choose a book. Retell a story.	Blend the syllables. free-zer, cu-cum-ber, gar-den-er	One thing I can't wait to do this summer...	Read the following words. barn, forth, blur	Use the following homophones in a sentence. to, two, too
Week 5	Choose a book. What is the major challenge or problem in the story?	What is the ending sound? task, juggle, gate	Write an imaginary story about finding a treasure chest buried in the sand.	Write three words that start with cr.	What are the contractions for the following words? cannot, I have, I will

Third Grade Review

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Week 6	Choose a book. What in the story reminds you of your own life?	What is the middle letter sound for each word? pet, main, knock	Do you enjoy fireworks? Why or why not?	Blend the onset /cl/ with each ending. -ip, -ot, -ap	Name two words that are antonyms of loud.
Week 7	Choose a book. What lesson can you learn from the story?	Put the prefix dis- in front of each word. color, like, appear	On a perfect summer vacation, where would you go and what would you do?	What are three words that end with the /th/ sound?	What are two meanings for the word ring?
Week 8	Choose a book. How did the problem of the story get fixed?	Change the middle sound of each word to /ă/. hit, log, pet, rug	What celebrity do you admire? Why do you look up to that person?	Tap out the following words. mink, rope, chat	Name two words that are synonyms of pretty.
Week 9	Choose a picture book. How do the illustrations help you to understand the story?	Blend the syllables. dis-like, vi-o-lin, for-ev-er	I laughed so hard the time I...	Read the following words. glide, spring, climb	Use the following homophones in a sentence. for, four
Week 10	Choose a book. Is there another story, movie, or t.v. show that reminds you of the book you read?	What is the ending sound? splash, catch, lake	What do you like to do on a rainy summer day?	Write three words that start with fr.	What are the contractions for the following words? do not, is not, it is