

AP Summer Reading Rubric

QUALITY SCALE:

6 = demonstrates mastery of content and style: all requirements are met and all writing and documentation (usage, grammar, spelling, mechanics, and MLA citations) conventions are observed with grace, sophistication, and original insight

5 = meets expectations of content and style, but could be more sophisticated and complex; all requirements are met and all writing and documentation conventions are observed

4-3 = partially meets expectations but may indicate insufficient development or unbalanced control over conventions

2-0 = minimally addresses expectations and includes several errors in conventions

CONTENT REQUIREMENTS: THOMAS FOSTER

CRITERIA	BELOVED	BELOVED	"THE DEAD"	"THE DEAD"
Explanations of Fosterian concepts are clear, accurate, and succinct.
Explanations of Fosterian concepts rely both on paraphrase and key quoted excerpts from Foster appropriately and correctly integrated following MLA guidelines.
Examination of Fosterian concept in text includes ... clear identification of the context for the example
...a quoted example of the concept that not only is accurate but reflects original insight
... correct citation of the example following MLA guidelines
... a sophisticated and developed analysis of how the text reflects the Fosterian concept
...a nuanced discussion of how the example contributes to a universal theme of the work as a whole (thematic discussion is underlined).

STANLEY FISH

CRITERIA	BELOVED	BELOVED	"THE DEAD"	"THE DEAD"
Identifications of sentence examples are clear, accurate and fulfill four of the six categories of sentence types.
Explanations of sentence categories are clear, accurate, and succinct .
Explanations of sentence categories rely both on paraphrase and key quoted excerpts from Fish appropriately and correctly integrated following MLA guidelines.
Explications of sentence examples fully illuminate how the example meets the criteria of the category.
Explications of sentence examples effectively examine the style of the sentence according to Cicero's codification. (Style discussion is underlined.)
Explications reflect a deep knowledge of the connection between the sentence and the larger themes of the works .

What aspects of this assignment proved to be the most challenging?

With what part of your assignment are you most satisfied?

TOTAL QUALITY SCORE:

GRADE CONVERSION: